Property Description

This brand new luxury home plus guest home just completed in April 2023 has everything one would dream of living in Costa Rica. From the moment you enter this architectural dream your gaze will feast upon the surrounding jungle, ocean, mountain and valley views. Watch the never ending wild life of toucans, scarlet macaws monkeys and more. Location can't be beat! Just minutes to downtown Uvita! As you approach the home an ample car port has plenty of parking for ease of living. Enter the custom cedar front door to find yourself surrounded in luxury appointments that would impress the most discerning buyer. Style and comfort hasn't been lost in the design of this impressive home. Immediately as you enter the home a guest bedroom is to your left for guests that need a main floor space.. Shortly there after the chefs kitchen has a large centre island donning a porcelain counter top with sleek cedar cupboards and a pantry big enough to fit anything and everything! Easy to host gatherings as the open concept design is surrounded by large glass windows so you can soak in every ounce of view from every angle.
