Property Description

Perched high among the trees and surrounded by lush greenery, this extraordinary property offers a perfect blend of natural beauty, comfort, and investment potential. Featuring three elevated studio spaces connected by charming wooden bridges, it creates a unique treehouse-like experience immersed in the vibrant sounds of the jungle. Fruit trees, abundant wildlife — including monkeys and tropical birds — and a serene atmosphere make this property a true sanctuary for nature lovers. A natural well provides fresh, sustainable water year-round, adding to the property's eco-friendly appeal. Beyond its beauty, this property comes with a proven history of successful rentals and an established brand, offering immediate income potential and a strong foundation for growth. Despite its peaceful, private setting, the property is just 7 minutes from the world-class surf and stunning shores of Playa Hermosa and the lively town of Santa Teresa — giving you the best of both seclusion and convenience.
