Property Description

Casa Buddha is a charming Spanish-style bungalow located just 800 meters from the beach in Playa Grande, Guanacaste. Surrounded by lush jungle and abundant wildlife, the home sits within a peaceful setting where monkeys and tropical birds glide through the treetops, creating an authentic Costa Rican atmosphere. With 3,200 sq ft of interior space, vaulted ceilings, hardwood accents, and an open-beam design, this residence offers four bedrooms and three bathrooms, along with excellent flexibility for families, full-time living, or rental income. The property's layout allows for easy division into two independent rental units, each with its own entrance, making it ideal for generating revenue, hosting extended family, or creating a private mother-in-law suite. Three full kitchens—one on the upper level, another on the lower level, and an additional outdoor kitchen—enhance the home's versatility.
