Property Description

This beautiful 24-acre (10-hectare) property offers complete privacy, stunning 360-degree mountain and jungle views, and a peaceful natural setting—perfect for a main residence and rural lifestyle. The main building site sits on a large, flat ridge with panoramic views, ideal for building your dream home surrounded by nature. Most of the land features lush jungle with mature trees, streams, and a seasonal waterfall, giving it a truly untouched feel. At the lower part of the property, there is a spacious open meadow with its own separate entrance. This area is perfect for keeping animals such as horses or cattle, or could be used to build a guest house or second home. It even has potential to be subdivided into its own independent property if desired. The property is also ideal for creating private jungle trails that connect the upper and lower building sites. These trails would allow you to enjoy peaceful morning walks surrounded by nature without ever leaving your land.
