Property Description

Tropical Forest Small Home for Sale with Separate Casita & Ocean View Lot Nature Lover's Paradise — Casa Kokoro, located in Victoria Real, a charming community of residential homes just a few minutes from vibrant Playa Tamarindo. Discover this stunning open-concept home in the lush tropical forest of Costa Rica, offering privacy, tranquility, and endless potential. Designed to blend seamlessly with its surroundings, this property is perfect for those seeking a jungle retreat near the beach. This small open concept home was originally built as a guest house, designed to bring the guests closer to nature while offering all the comforts of modern living. The owners were planning to live there while building their dream home on the same property - on a prime ocean-view building pad — complete with a water meter. Change of plans, it is now ready for YOUR next vision! A few meters from the home, they added a one-bedroom casita (guest house) to welcome friends and family, as well as a little carport to cover the vehicles.
