Property Description

Located in the well-established and secure condominium Rincón de las Brisas in Heredia, Condo 71 offers a unique opportunity to live in a modern, comfortable, and strategically located home, just minutes from key services and amenities. This elegant two-story residence has been thoughtfully designed to combine functionality and contemporary style. The ground floor features an open-concept living and dining area, providing a spacious and fluid environment ideal for both daily living and entertaining. The kitchen is equipped with high-quality melamine cabinetry, a practical breakfast bar, and ample storage. There is a designated space for a refrigerator, including a water connection for the installation of an icemaker. Adjacent to the kitchen is the laundry area, as well as a covered patio with paving stones, offering additional space for outdoor relaxation or family gatherings. The second floor houses three comfortable bedrooms, all with built-in closets.
