Property Description

Spectacular Farm with Natural Waterfall and View of Arenal Volcano This beautiful property of 56,075 m² (approximately 13.86 acres) offers a privileged natural setting, featuring a pure spring water waterfall that enhances the beauty and tranquility of the place. The land is completely clean, well-maintained, and free of weeds, ready to be enjoyed or developed. It boasts abundant vegetation, including numerous cedar and laurel trees—precious woods known for their durability and water resistance. Additionally, there is bamboo and a wide variety of fruit trees, making this farm a true natural paradise. Security and privacy are unmatched. The property is located at the end of a dead-end street, being the last farm before reaching the river where the waterfall is found. There are only four neighbors in the area, all permanent residents who collaborate in monitoring the place 24/7. Access is controlled through a gate with a security camera, shared exclusively among the five properties, and only the owners have the key.
