Property Description

A great opportunity in San Luis de Turrubares, this beautiful property is located just 45 minutes from downtown San Jose taking route #27. Water and electricity right in front of the property. It is a nice pasture farm, It has an area ready to build the house of your dreams surrounded by fruit trees and lots of vegetation including trees with usable wood. San Luis is a very small, sleepy town of generations of farmers and ranchers perfect for a hideaway, and if you're looking for a break from the non-stop drag racing action, as close as that and it feels like a world apart.
