Property Description

Casa Los Jardines is embedded right in the heart of Los Almendros residential community within Hacienda Pinilla. Casa Los Jardines incorporates forms and elements inspired in the refreshing hacienda style embellished with the contemporary comforts featured in this captivating architectural design. Red tiled roofs, stucco walls and beamed ceilings reflect the most characteristic elements of this one-story home. Also, interiors boast rough plastered walls and curved corners and coved ceilings. This home has 2 cozy bedrooms and a great master suite, each with their own bathroom and walk-in closet. A stroll down the interior patio takes you to the entertainment room on one side and the main social area on the other. Casa Los Jardines tops it with a full studio, a great bathroom and an exceptional kitchen that is structurally part of the open-air dining and living room area.
