Property Description

For those seeking the ultimate in privacy with views that go on forever, you will not be disappointed with Casa Acuario! This luxury ocean view home was built in December 2012 of high quality Canadian Steel Frame, this ultra energy efficient home features many 'green' features such as the 100% recycled Plastic roof to the top-of-the-line Eloy mini-waste water treatment plant. Incredible views of the Pacific Ocean, Catalina Islands and surrounding mountains and valleys. Three stories and amazing views from each level. The first level contains the main entrance and two-car carport and storage. The second level features a bedroom/office, kitchen, living, dining, laundry room, storage and a full bathroom. Kitchen features beautiful granite countertops, built in stove and oven, GE profile/Monogram stainless steel appliances and custom wood cabinetry. The designer infinity edge pool, coralina deck, and additional storage, as well as an amazing outdoor kitchen with Webber stainless steel gas grill are located on this level.
