Property Description

Special Covid-19 pricing on the remainder of the lot inventory in this beautiful country development. All lot prices reduced by 20% to the end of 2021. A deposit this year will reserve a lot at this discounted price. Eleven lots remaining in Phase 2 with pre-discount pricing starting at only $50,000. Join this established community in a private nature retreat close to the natural wonders of Chirripo National Park, yet only a short drive to the conveniences of the city of San Isidro de el General and an easy day-trip to the beautiful Pacific beaches of southern Costa Rica. All housing sites are fully prepared and have been selected for their stability, accessibility by road, and great vistas. Photographs do not do justice to the spectacular surroundings at this location – you must stand on one of our building sites to fully appreciate the panoramic views that are a feast for the eyes! 17 lots spread throughout 32 hectares (80 acres) of rolling terrain, with natural lot boundaries (creeks and treed ravines) wherever possible and with each lot designed to include a completely natural and stable building site with spectacular mountain and valley views.
