Property Description

Located on a 8.109 square meters lot in the prestigious Lomas del Paraíso gated community, this brand new marvel features high vaulted ceilings and walls of glass that open wide to connect living areas to outdoor spaces, exemplifying the architect's love of volume and natural light. The house features three bedrooms and three bathrooms. The master bedroom features a considerable walk-in closet and en-suite bathroom. A large kitchen dinner leaves plenty of room for the family and guests to mingle around the space. The floor to ceiling windows in the great room capture sweeping views out towards the Pacific Ocean. A continuity of flooring material blurs the boundaries between interior and exterior spaces. The open air deck and pool area are the perfect escape to enjoy the region's pleasant weather. Throughout the home, chic finishes coalesce with beautiful proportions & scale to create a sophisticated & welcoming home.
