Property Description

Welcome to this exceptional property nestled in the Guaria area of Perez Zeledon, offering a perfect blend of tranquility, breathtaking views, and convenient access to nearby amenities. Situated just 15 minutes from downtown San Isidro and a mere 45 minutes from the stunning beaches of Playa Dominical, this property presents an unparalleled opportunity for those seeking a serene retreat in a prime location. As you enter through the metal entrance gate, you'll be greeted by the beauty and potential of this expansive property. The large main home building site is ideal for constructing your dream residence, where you can wake up every morning to awe-inspiring views of the surrounding mountains and valley. The altitude of almost 900 meters ensures a cool and pleasant climate throughout the year, offering respite from the heat. In addition to the main home site, this property boasts multiple sites for additional dwellings, providing endless possibilities for expansion or the creation of a private compound.
