Property Description

Casa Azura is a pre-construction residence in the Pacifico community of Playas del Coco, Guanacaste, Costa Rica. This modern tropical home, with ocean views, is designed to blend seamlessly with its natural surroundings and offers a luxurious lifestyle. With a construction duration of about 10 months, Casa Azura allows future residents to personalize finishes and make design modifications. Inspired by modern tropical aesthetics, the house features four bedrooms and four and a half bathrooms. The ground level includes living spaces, bedrooms, terraces, entertainment, and pool areas, with a garage on the lower level. As part of the Pacifico community, residents have access to amenities such as a beach club, pools with jacuzzi and lap lane, dog park, and a sports complex. The location offers proximity to supermarkets, restaurants, and recreational activities. Known for its convenient location, proximity to the Liberia International Airport, quick access to some of the most beautiful beaches in Guanacaste, and its vibrant nightlife, Playas del Coco promises an unforgettable experience for all visitors.
