Property Description

Re-released to the market with a significant price reduction, this stunning estate home is nestled within the prestigious Reserva de Golf community in Hacienda Pinilla. This exquisite Tuscan-style residence offers timeless elegance, privacy, and resort-style living, all just minutes from the beach. Set directly on the golf course yet amazingly private due to its mature landscaping, the home is surrounded by a tranquil and tropical vibe that complements its classic Italian architecture and solid, high-quality construction. From arched doorways and wrought-iron accents to warm stone finishes and terracotta rooflines, every detail evokes old-world charm with a refined, modern twist. The entire home, including the four-point arched ceilings are finished in hand-laid premium stucco. This property cannot be reproduced today at this level of quality for this price. This home boasts an expansive 8,250 ft², and the homesite itself is a generous 1,940 m² (half acre!).
