Property Description

1 Bedroom Jungle River Retreat Home And Prime Space to Build Your Main House Sitting on an 1.20 acre lot and already a successful AirBnB house, this home includes all the comforts of modern living in a perfectly executed compact design. Placed at the border of civilization and jungle, the house faces a big open front lot and backs into the buzzing rainforest – but civilization is just moments away as this property sits in the famous jungle town of OJOCHAL! The ascending driveways terminates at a carport which is attached to the house, ensuring an always-dry passage. The entrance is located at the back, adjacent to the beautiful timber patio which looks straight into the forest that descends towards the nearby river valley. The ground level includes a fully equipped kitchen, bathroom, and laundry/storage room. In a twist of brilliant design, the shower sits in the patio and gives a full jungle view! A staircase leads to the upper-level bedroom with windows that look into the jungles on both ends of the house.
