Property Description

Located in the charming and world-renowned area of El Castillo, San Carlos, this extraordinary property offers one of the most spectacular views in Costa Rica — overlooking both Lake Arenal and the majestic Arenal Volcano. Its privileged location places it right next to the Sky Adventure Park, one of the region's most visited attractions, making it a perfect opportunity for a tourism or hospitality investment. Set on 43,230 M2 (10.68 acres) of land, this property combines natural beauty, accessibility, and development potential. The property is fully fenced, includes a ranch structure, and features fruit trees scattered across the landscape, adding to its tropical charm. It also has access to both water and electricity, simplifying the process for future construction or expansion. What makes this property truly special is its potential. It already comes with approved building plans for what could become a set of rental cabins, making it an ideal project for anyone looking to invest in Costa Rica's thriving eco-tourism industry.
