Property Description

Tucked high above Malpaís, this enchanting 11-acre sanctuary offers an extraordinary blend of privacy, luxury, and connection to nature. The expansive land allows for a rare lifestyle, where three thoughtfully designed homes are seamlessly tucked into the jungle canopy, offering sweeping ocean views and a soundtrack of howler monkeys echoing through the trees. At the heart of the estate is a grand main residence with soaring 14-foot ceilings, hand-selected materials imported from Bali, and two luminous en-suite bedrooms. A second elegant guest house offers two more suites, while a third one-bedroom retreat is ideal for visitors, a caretaker, or independent family members. Because of its vast acreage, the property opens the door to endless possibilities: plant your own organic gardens, create horse stables or riding trails, expand with additional villas or wellness structures, or simply enjoy the untouched jungle and open skies.
